

How to Separate Rubbish Correctly

Residual Waste Container

- Cooked food leftovers
- Meat, bones
- Vacuum cleaner bags
- Sweepings
- Soiled paper
- Hygiene articles
- Nappies
- Sanitary towels
- Tampons
- Animal litter (mineral)
- Cigarette butts
- BBQ charcoal
- Plastic sheets for decorating
- Wallpaper scraps
- Nylon stockings/tights
- Light bulbs
- Cigarette lighters
- Felt-tip pens
- Music cassettes

Doesn't belong in the residual waste container:

- Waste materials containing pollutants
- Electronic devices
- Rubble

Yellow Container
Yellow Garbage Bag

For emptied packaging materials only

Synthetic packaging materials

- Plastic bottles: e.g. for hair shampoo, detergents
- Plastic wrappers and bags, e.g. for sweets
- Plastic pots: e.g. for dairy products

Metal packaging materials

- Tins, food cans
- Aluminum packaging materials
- Metal lids from food jars

Drink cartons

- Milk and juice cartons

Doesn't belong in the yellow container:

- Paper and glass
- Residual waste
- Toys
- Nappies

Biowaste Container for Organic Waste

- Vegetable and salad waste
- Fruit waste (including citrus fruits)
- Egg shells
- Coffee grounds/filters
- Tea bags
- Nut shells
- Waste flowers
- Garden refuse
- Grass cuttings
- Cuts from hedges and trees
- Leaves, foliage

Doesn't belong in the biowaste container:

- Cooked food leftovers
- Meat, bones
- Liquids
- Vacuum cleaner bags, sweepings, ashes
- Cigarette butts
- Animal litter (mineral)
- Nappies
- Plastic bags

Cardboard/Paper

- Cardboard boxes, cardboard
- Paper packaging
- Paper bags
- Newspapers
- Magazines
- Catalogues
- Brochures
- Writing-paper
- Exercise books
- Books without synthetic covers
- Envelopes

Doesn't belong in the waste paper bin:

- Soiled or coated paper
- Drink and milk cartons
- Hygiene papers
- Wallpaper

Glass – Separated into White, Green and Brown Glass

- Glass bottles for drinks, cooking oil, vinegar, sauce
- Food and jam jars

Tip:

Blue bottles belong into the green-glass container.

Doesn't belong in the used glass container:

- Sheets of glass (e.g. window panes or mirrors)
- Ceramics, porcelain
- Fire-resistant glass
- Returnable bottles